JAY GALLANT

RISING R&B SINGER

About

Born in Charleston, South Carolina, Jay Gallant discovered his passion for music at age three and began professional vocal training at age nine. With a natural talent for performance, he quickly developed a signature sound—smooth, soulful, and deeply rooted in R&B tradition.

His debut single Fool for You introduced him as a rising star, earning industry recognition and proving his ability to connect with listeners through raw emotion and rich melodies. Influenced by legends like Usher and Michael Jackson, Jay blends classic R&B with a fresh, modern edge.

Now, at just fifteen, he steps confidently into the next phase of his career with his new single Green Light, bringing his artistry to new heights. With more music and major projects on the way, Jay Gallant is a name to watch in R&B.
